

Year 2 PSHE Curriculum Objectives

Autumn – Families and Friendships	Spring - Happy, healthy and Safe	Summer - Respectful and Resilient
Know to be appreciative for what our families do for us	Know the importance of keeping our bodies clean	Know that being helpful makes you and others feel better
To understand that everyone's family is different	To know the correct names for body parts, including external genitalia  To know which parts of our body need to be cleaned most often and why	Know how and when to say sorry
Know how to be an appreciative and sharing friend	To know which part of the body are private be able to use the correct names for these parts of the body.  Know that there is good and bad touch, and that touching should never be secret	Know how to show respect by treating others how I want to be treated
Know that friendships work best they are welcoming	Know the importance of brushing their teeth and how to brush their teeth effectively	Know that the internet is very useful, and why children should be supervised when using the internet
Know that friends are honest with each other	Know that a healthy diet is balanced and varied	Know that online, people can pretend to be someone they are not, and why they might do this
Know how to use Kelso's wheel to resolve problems in the playground	Know that emotions can be very powerful	Know what you can do to help a someone who has been bullied

